

Dayschool: PICTURING POLITICAL HISTORIES

Gallery Event at Cornerhouse
Saturday 2 November 1.00 - 4.30pm

The dayschool will explore art which has translated and sometimes intervened in political moments, and at how artists have often contested dominant representations of political history.

Tutors: John Lynch, Leeds Metropolitan University
The murder of Rosa Luxemburg: History and Representation

Jim Aulich, Manchester Metropolitan University
1989: Art and the Collapse of Empire

Simon Faulkner, Manchester Metropolitan University
Locating Baghdad: Art, Visual Culture and the Gulf War

For further details, please contact Vicky Charnock on (0161) 228 7621

Fee £5.00 (£4.00 concessions)

Tickets from Box Office : 0161 288 2463

Cornerhouse

70 Oxford Street, Manchester, M1 5NH

